Rights

5. The local agency will provide information on other nutrition, health or assistance programs, and make referrals as appropriate.
6. Improper use or receipt of CSFP benefits as a result of dual participation or other program violations may lead to a claim against the individual to recover the value of the benefits, and may lead to disqualification from CSFP.
7. Participants must report changes in household income or composition within 10 days after the change becomes known to the household.

Responsibilities

1. Do not make false statements orally or in writing in order to obtain benefits to which you or your household would not otherwise be eligible.

Ineligibility

I have been advised in writing that I am ineligible to participate in the Commodity Supplemental Food Program and have the right to a fair hearing. I am ineligible to participate based on the following criteria: Income/Home Address/Category.

Right of Appeal/Fair Hearing

If you are dissatisfied with any action or failure to act with regard to your application for the Commodity Supplemental Food Program, or with regard to the food benefits you are now receiving, or because such benefits have been cancelled, you have the right to appeal. (A fair hearing need not be granted, however, when either State or Federal law requires automatic grant adjustments). You may appeal in writing or orally to the local office of the Utah Department of Health, Commodity Supplemental Food Program, P.O. Box 141013, Salt Lake City, UT 84114, 801-273-2915 within 30 calendar days of the date of this notice.

At the fair hearing, your case may be presented by yourself, a household member or representative, such as legal counsel, a relative, a friend or other spokesperson you choose. A fair hearing will be conducted by an impartial official who will render a decision regarding your case. However, there are not provisions whereby the Department can pay the attorney's fee.

If you request a fair hearing because of a reduction of termination of your benefits within 15 calendar days from this notice, your benefits will be continued at the present level at least until the time of the hearing.

In accordance with federal civil rights law and U.S. Department of Agriculture (USDA) civil rights regulations and policies, this institution is prohibited from discriminating on the basis of race, color, national origin, sex (including gender identity and sexual orientation), disability, age, or reprisal or retaliation for prior civil rights activity.

NO-SHOW POLICY

As part of the Commodity Supplemental Food Program (CSFP) food packages should be collected from the designated locations every month. Each participant shall be given the time and location of their monthly pick-up. If a participant fails to pick-up their box in a month the participant shall be considered a “no-show.” Violation of the “no-show” policy shall result in forfeiture of CSFP benefits.

The CSFP No-Show policy is as follows:

1. Participant’s failure to pick-up food packages for two (2) consecutive months will be removed from enrollment in CSFP.
2. Participants in hospital, out of town, or unable to pick-up the food package due to illness for two (2) consecutive months may remain on the program and will not be removed, as long as they contact the Utah Food Bank, (801)887-1275.
3. Participants who are removed from the program for violation of the “no-show” policy are allowed to re-apply for benefits unless they have violated the “no-show” policy twice previously. If a wait list exists, participants re-applying after violating the “no-show” policy must be treated as if they were applying for the first time, and must be placed on the wait list in the order in which they contacted the Utah Food Bank.
4. Participants who violate the “no-show” policy a third time within a twelve (12) month period must be disqualified from CSFP for a period of up to one year, unless the local agency determines that disqualification would result in a serious health risk.
5. Participants in violation of the “no-show” policy have a right to request a fair hearing by contacting their local CSFP agent at (801) 273-2915. Participants have thirty days (30) from the date of written notice to request a fair hearing.
